

Cumbria Theological Society Programme 2009

Tue 17th Mar 2009
7.30 pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Tue 21st Apr 2009
7.30 pm
The Vestry,
St Cuthbert's, Carlisle

Wed 3rd June 2009
7.30 pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Thu 9th July 2009
7.30 pm
URC Church Hall,
Cockermouth

Tue 22nd Sept 2009
7.30pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Wed 14th Oct 2009
7.30 pm
The Vestry,
St Cuthbert's, Carlisle

The Rev Rachel Poolman
Area President, URC

Kevin Quigley and Dr Larry McHugh
retired Headteacher; retired Director, von Hugel Institute, Cambridge

Canon Dr Peter Wilcox
Canon Chancellor, Lichfield Cathedral

John Bradbury
Westminster College, Cambridge

Michael Chester
formerly tutor, North Eastern Ordination Course

The Very Revd Michael Sadgrove
Dean, Durham Cathedral

www.carlisediocese.org.uk/partners/theological

. Ecclesiology in a Cumbrian context:
an exploration of how contemporary trends impact
on local churches

The formation of young people:
Christianity and Citizenship in schools.

The Calvin you never knew

Calvin and the future the Church

Jewish attitudes to Christianity

Envy:
theological and spiritual reflections in a time of recession

Cumbria Theological Society Programme 2009

Tue 17th Mar 2009
7.30 pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Tue 21st Apr 2009
7.30 pm
The Vestry,
St Cuthbert's, Carlisle

Wed 3rd June 2009
7.30 pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Thu 9th July 2009
7.30 pm
URC Church Hall,
Cockermouth

Tue 22nd Sept 2009
7.30pm
St Mark's CofE School,
Natland

Wed 14th Oct 2009
7.30 pm
The Vestry,
St Cuthbert's, Carlisle

The Rev Rachel Poolman
Area President, URC

Kevin Quigley and Dr Larry McHugh
retired Headteacher; retired Director, von Hugel Institute, Cambridge

Canon Dr Peter Wilcox
Canon Chancellor, Lichfield Cathedral

John Bradbury
Westminster College, Cambridge

Michael Chester
formerly tutor, North Eastern Ordination Course

The Very Revd Michael Sadgrove
Dean, Durham Cathedral

www.carlisediocese.org.uk/partners/theological

Ecclesiology in a Cumbrian context:
an exploration of how contemporary trends impact
on local churches

The formation of young people:
Christianity and Citizenship in schools.

The Calvin you never knew

Calvin and the future the Church

Jewish attitudes to Christianity

Envy:
theological and spiritual reflections in a time of recession

THE CUMBRIA THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Society has existed since 1992 to provide a forum for several lectures each year from both local and nationally well known speakers.

The steering group, chaired by Canon Tim Herbert, is ecumenical in composition.

Lectures are open to all and we are funded by voluntary donations.

If you would like to go on our mailing list, please contact one of the steering committee.

THE CUMBRIA THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Society has existed since 1992 to provide a forum for several lectures each year from both local and nationally well known speakers.

The steering group, chaired by Canon Tim Herbert, is ecumenical in composition.

Lectures are open to all and we are funded by voluntary donations.

If you would like to go on our mailing list, please contact one of the steering committee.

STEERING GROUP

The Revd Canon Tim Herbert LCTP
The Revd Fr John Barron
The Revd Kevin Ellis
Professor John Parratt
The Ven Richard Pratt
The Revd Canon Stephen Pye
The Revd Canon Geoffrey Ravalde
The Revd Philip Rigby
The Revd Alistair Smeaton

Enquiries to:

Canon Tim Herbert: 01228 522573;
Canon Geoffrey Ravalde: 016973 42337;
Ven Richard Pratt: 01900 66190
(Natland School: 015395 60719)

STEERING GROUP

The Revd Canon Tim Herbert LCTP
The Revd Fr John Barron
The Revd Kevin Ellis
Professor John Parratt
The Ven Richard Pratt
The Revd Canon Stephen Pye
The Revd Canon Geoffrey Ravalde
The Revd Philip Rigby
The Revd Alistair Smeaton

Enquiries to:

Canon Tim Herbert: 01228 522573;
Canon Geoffrey Ravalde: 016973 42337;
Ven Richard Pratt: 01900 66190
(Natland School: 015395 60719)

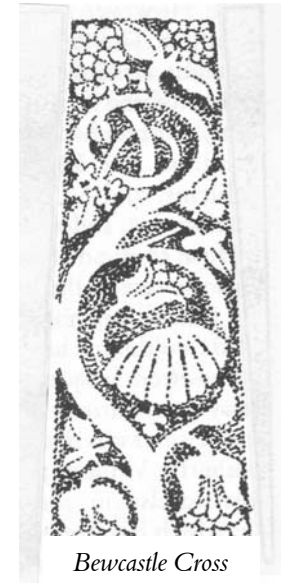

CUMBRIA

THEOLOGICAL

SOCIETY

2009 PROGRAMME

Open to all

Bewcastle Cross

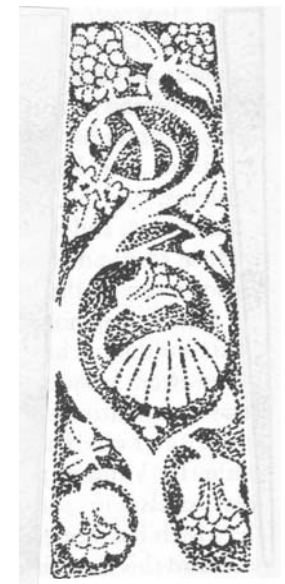

CUMBRIA

THEOLOGICAL

SOCIETY

2009 PROGRAMME

Open to all

Bewcastle Cross